Citizen Queer: A Guide to Modern Living

BOSTON, MA: Queer Soup Productions presents 'Citizen Queer: A Guide to Modern Living', an evening of swell comedy, darling drag, hep music and courtesy tips. 'Citizen Queer' will be presented at Candyland at The Milky Way on Sunday, May 4th at 8pm. Tickets are $7 and can be purchased at the door. Show at 8pm, doors at 7:30pm. Dancing following the performance. The Milky Way is located at 405 Centre Street in Jamaica Plain. For information, please visit <http://www.brianandmal.com> or <http://www.truthserum.org>.

Queer Soup is back and just in time for spring with 'Citizen Queer: A Guide to Modern Living.' Ever wondered where the spork should go on your brunch place setting? Or what social courtesies apply to the butch in your life? Get answers to these age-old questions as well as tips on manners, dating and how to survive biological warfare all in one evening's worth of comedic entertainment. 'Citizen Queer' will take you on a journey of good, clean, queer hygiene fun. Perfect for gearing up for Pride and all gay occasions!

Queer Soup is a collaboration of queer artists who cultivate new works that introduce, unite, and incite communities by using laughter to smuggle ideas across society's borders. Previous Queer Soup productions include 'Instant Queer Soup' at the BCA and this December's sold out run of 'Buffy the Vampire Slayer's High School Reunion.'
