SCENE: Girl (JO) and ANNOUNCER (A) on Stage – JO is doing something ‘masculine’ – lifting weights, tying a tie, etc..

ANNOUNCER

Pee Yew! Somebody stinks.

(JO seems indignant)

Ever have that not so fresh feeling? Do you sometimes feel a bit unsure? Afraid that you just can't hide your little secret? Limp Wrists out of control? Do people cross the street as you approach them? Find yourself sitting alone at the office party?

(B nods in agreement at these questions)

That's because you have Gender Dysforia! That's right, Jo – you stink to high heaven of gender role confusion.

(JO is shocked)

But fear not – a revolutionary new anti-perspirant will cure all that – GenderStick Pink!

(ANNOUNCER reveals Genderstick)

ANNOUNCER:

Go ahead Jo.

(JO puts on deodorant)

A swipe of GenderStick Pink in the morning will keep your estrogen level at an all time high all day long. Genderstick Pink will turn even the butchest coal miner into the prettiest, sweetest smelling homemaker in town.

JO:

Wow! No more Superbowl Sundays for me! Now I can go to the mall and get a pedicure with the girls from work. (smells under arms) I used to smell like carborater grease and old spice but now.....I just love that flowery scent

ANNOUNCER:

GenderStick Pink comes in a variety of fragrances – including Lavendar, Rising Bread and Spring Rain. Why Jo, you're smell sweet all day and all night.

JO:

Please call me Joanna. Before GenderStick Pink I never knew what bathroom to go into – I was sure that everyone would scream if they saw me fixing my tie in the girls room and I was afraid I'd get pummeled if I went into the boys room. But now – I can freshen up with pride with all th ladies!

Anouncer:

That's right! You'll never be beaten with a baseball bat again, unless of course you touch another gal's guy. Ha Ha Ha! And fellas, don't you worry – GenderStick Blue will turn even the biggest queen into the strongest, most handsome man in town. And don't forget GenderStick Talcum Powder. Sprinkle a bit on your babe's tush to insure the proper gender roles for your child. You wouldn't want little Susie to try out for the Football team, would you?

JO:

No! Why, GenderStick Pink is just the cure I needed. I didn't even know I was so unhappy and plain wrong – until you set me straight! Thanks GenderStick Pink!

ANNOUNCER:

GenderStick Pink – Sweet enough for a woman, so you never seem like a man.
